

35th UBC Summer IO Conference

UBC Sauder School of Business would like to acknowledge that we are guests on this land.

We are located on the traditional,
ancestral, and unceded territory of the Musqueam people.

The Musqueam have lived in this area and have protected this land
for thousands of years.

We will respect it and make it a place of learning.

The plan

- Sessions last 3 hours
 - Today: 9 am – Noon, 1:30 – 4:30 pm
 - Each speaker has 75 minutes
 - Questions are encouraged throughout
 - There will be a 30 min (approx.) break in between talks
- We will walk to Sage Bistro at Noon for lunch
- Our dinner tonight is at Blue Water Café (1095 Hamilton Street, Vancouver) at 6:30 pm

The plan

- Session I (Thursday morning)
 - Gautam Gowrisankaran (Columbia)
 - Kei Kawai (Berkeley)
- Session II (Thursday afternoon)
 - Jean-Francois Houde (Wisconsin)
 - Margaret Slade (UBC)
- Session III (Friday Morning)
 - Amanda Starc (Northwestern)
 - Ebehi Iyoha (Harvard)

Disclosure

Our sponsors:

- Phelps Centre for the Study of Government & Business (UBC)
- Rotman Institute for International Business (U of T)
- Charles River Associates

Conference organizers were solely responsible for choosing papers and speakers.